JUDGE PARKER'S RULING.

The Case of the Library Association Against the City.

NEW LIBRARY FUND.

Judge F. W. Parker, who rendered cision yesterday in the case of the buquerque Public Library association and from him the following facts rela- at 2 o'clock. Burial will take place in tive thereto were obtained:

"A demurrer was interposed by the defendants raising the points that the plaintiffs had an adequate remedy at law and consequently sould not invoke the aid of court of equity; also that there was a misjoinder of causes of ac-tion. The bill prayed for the restoration of the books and as well as injunction against the diversion of funds by the city to other purposes than that of the support of the plaintiffs-meaning the Library association. These were the two principal points and both points were overruled. The demurrer was overruled as t the first point upon the theory that the plainting have no adequate remedy at law, the remedy by replevin being inadequate to restore the property which is necessary for the performance of plaintiffs' public functions. The othpoint was overrulad for the reason that both demands of the plaintiff arise out of the same subject of ac-

Continuing, Judge Parker stated: "In the afternoon (youterday) the hearing was continued upon a mo lon to strike out portions of the answer of the defendants, which had been filed after the ruling on demurrer. This motilit to strike out was sustained in part and overruled in part, and the plaintiff will eitner demur or reply to the answer within a few days.

"This leaves the case with a prelimipary mandatory injunction in force for the redelivery of the books to the plaintiffs, the Albuquerque Public Li brary association.

ORDER COMPLIED WITH. Early this morning Mayor Marran, with several trams and haif a dozen workmen under the special supervision of the street commissioner. Col. Martin Tierney, was in evidence at the new library building (the Itaynolds' gift) on East Ballroad avenue, and the oks and shelves declared by the Parker ruling to belong to the Albuquerque Public Library association were placed on wagons and carted back to the room in the Commercial club building from whence they were taken a same time ago. It is presumed that this library will be in good running order in
